OIL PROSPECT AT WEWOKA

Wewoka, Ok., April 29.—Operations in drilling at the Wewoka oil well are temporarily at a standstill on account of the casing cable having broken Saturday. It is believed that the "shoe" is bent, and if such is the case, it may be necessary to pull all of the 500 or more feet of casing. In view of the fact that the well has been caving badly, the withdrawal of the casing would probably occasion the necessity of redrilling two or three hundred feet. It is not believed that drilling can be resumed inside of ten days, though, if everything is favorable, it may start again within two or three days.

The log of the well still shows up fine, indications being that the formations are the same as in the old well. If such proves the case 140 feet more should bring oil, as the well has been drilled about 1560 feet, and the location is probably 75 feet higher than the old well, where oil was found at 1626 feet.

Because of reports that the well was to be shot Sunday, originating in an unknown manner, there were hundreds of visitors there.

Perhaps no well now drilling in the state is attracting more attention than the Wewoka well. The fact that the field has already been proved, to a certain extent, by the success of the old well drilled several years ago, has induced the drillers to plan to go as far as possible, or until oil is struck.

There are a number of well known oil men in Shawnee at this time, and it is said that there is a strong probability of drilling starting in the immediate vicinity within the next ten days.

There has been considerable speculation as to the meaning of some of the oil leases taken in this county, under the terms of which they expire unless a well is drilled by May 20. Other leases recently taken expire unless a well is drilled inside of 60 days.

OKLAHOMA CITY BOOSTERS VISIT ADA

MAKE STOP OF AN HOUR—BUSY TIME MINGLING WITH CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS.

The Oklahoma City boosters arrived this afternoon on almost schedule time and spent an hour fraternizing with their Ada friends in truly western informal style.

The train stopped first at the cement plant and after going through it came away with many expressions of admiration for such an enterprise located in the state.

On coming to the depot the boosters disembarked and headed by the band marched to the intersection of Main and Broadway where after the address of welcome, Rev. J. H. O. Smith and J. S. Ross made brief talks in which they boosted not only their own city but the entire state, advising the people to patronize home industries and keep Oklahoma money at home. A fair sized crowd gathered to hear the speakers, and the representatives of the firms of Oklahoma City participating in the excursion were busy hunting up friends and customers, distributing literature and samples and getting acquainted. When the warning whistle blew, many citizen accompanied the visitors to their train to wish them a prosperous trip.

The train consisted of nine coaches and they seemed to be well filled.

Among the visitors to the News office was Paul B. Smith, formerly of Atoka and who for a brief time was connected with the Ada News. A. Rucker, who writes the New State notes for the Oklahoman, and Mr. Newbern, representing the state fair. Mr. Rucker was seeking data for a writeup of this place, its resources and possibilities.

GROCERY FIRM GOES OUT OF BUSINESS

The firm of Sanders & Sons, grocers, closed its doors this morning and its assets will be liquidated for benefit of the creditors. This firm was composed of men who are very desirable citizens and their many friends regret that any misfortune has overtaken them.

J. F. McKeel and N. B. Haney returned Monday afternoon from a business trip to Long Beach and Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. McKeel says some few spots of California were very beautiful, but to take it all the way around it did not suit him as well as Oklahoma. At Los Angeles he met up with Duke Stone, whom he found prospering.

EDMOND WILL PLAY NORMAL

WILL PLAY ADA CHAMPIONS
THURSDAY AND FRIDAY AFTERNOONS.

The people of Ada will have an opportunity of seeing two more great games of baseball this week. The Edmond Normal, East Central's main rival, will be here Thursday and Friday and will clash with the home boys. Edmond is playing good ball this year, according to all reports. The people of Ada know what the East Central boys can do.

The game Thursday will be called at 4 o'clock, but the one Friday will have to be called at 2 o'clock, in order to give the Edmond boys time to get off on the afternoon train.

Just who will pitch the first game is still a question. Pat Jones has found a warm place in the heart of all baseball fans, and he likely will do the twirling stunt the first day. However, Curly Ligon puts over some mighty fine slants, and he is more than anxious to show the people again how he can make the opposing slabsmen bite the dust.

Limber Bill McDaniel will, of course, be used behind the bat again. Bill certainly deserves credit if any one does. He went behind the bat Saturday and caught a game that Chief Myers would have been proud of, and he did this with the whole end of one of his fingers cut off. It was rather a dangerous undertaking but Bill undertook it and got away with it in graceful style. Then, too, the opposing pitcher tried to put Bill out of the game by turning all his speed against Bill's head, Bill, however, continued to work as though nothing had happened.

CRUCE APPOINTS INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

A. L. Welch, of Purcell, vice president of the Purcell Bank and Trust company and state democratic committeeman from McClain county, was chosen by Governor Lee Cruce Monday afternoon as the successor to Perry A. Ballard, state insurance commissioner, resigned. The commission will be issued Tuesday morning when the new insurance commissioner will enter upon his official duties, having been notified of his appointment Monday.

Mr. Welch is primarily a business man, though in his career in Missouri his former home, and Oklahoma, he has been employed as a farmer, insurance man, a breeder of live stock and banker. In Sheridan county, Mo., where he lived during the greater part of his life, he was elected to the office of county treasurer. Coming to Oklahoma in 1905 he settled at Purcell, where he became identified with the Purcell Bank and Trust company the vice presidency of which institution he has held a number of years. In this capacity Mr. Welch has engaged considerably in farm loans and insurance.

To Outline Gettysburg Trip.

Oklahoma City, Ok., April 29.—Preliminary meeting of the Gettysburg battleground commission of Oklahoma will be held this week to outline plans for the trip to Gettysburg in July. Col. William Higgins of Bartlesville is chairman of the commission. The legislature appropriated $7,500 to pay expenses of the veterans now residing in Oklahoma of both the Union and the Confederate armies who participated in the fight fifty years ago. All other veterans will be required to pay their own expenses, but will be given quarters and subsistence by the Federal government. Those of the commission who will meet Col. Higgins here are Dr. John Threadgill of Oklahoma City, Dr. D. M. Hailey of McAlester, W. R. Kelley of Kingfisher, Capt. T. M. Soward of Guthrie and Col. R. A. Sneed of Lawton.

OPPOSITE HARRIS HOTEL

McCarty and Moran to Clash

New York, April 29.—What promises to be the choicest tidbit fed to metropolitan fight fans in some time will be served at the St. Nicholas Athletic Club tomorrow night, when Luther McCarty claimant to the white heavyweight championship, and Frank Moran, the Pittsburg heavyweight, will come together for a ten-round argument with the gloves. It will be the best opportunity that McCarty has had to display his prowess to the followers of the game in New York. Moran, though a smaller and lighter man than McCarty, is counted upon to give the Missourian an interesting battle. Moran has done most of his fighting in the west and in Europe, being unusually successful in foreign lands. The most notable of his recent achievements was a twenty-round bout with Gunboat Smith, in which he lost the decision to the Californian, but brushed aside the hard punches for the full twenty rounds.

ALFALFA BILL'S MODSTY.

An exception is needed to prove any rule. And the exception which proves the rule that, in writing their biographies in the Congressional Directory, senators and representatives are not modest, is proved by the modesty of "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, one of the three congressmen at large now representing Oklahoma in the lower House at Washington.

The Hon. William H. Murray, to give him that title which properly belongs to him, rather than that one by which his name has become almost a household word in the southwest, is pre-eminently fitted to be a congressman at large. He has lived his life in the open. Spacious distances and far-away horizons have always invited his view. Not for him the wall-ed-in streets in which people pine, afraid even to venture to the city's edge. His has always been the look afied. No pent-up Ufca has ever contracted his powers. We know these things, but not from the brief and modest story of himself told in the congressional directory. There, all we find is that he ran away from a Texas home when a boy and has since shod horses, punched cattle, boomed towns and raised alfalfa.

All of these things are hard to do, with the one exception of raising alfalfa. Alfalfa raises itself. And it was not until after his triumph in fields of more heroic endeavor that this modest congressman at large entered the alfalfa fields of the Chickasaw country in ways to link his name imperishably with that product of the soil. Realizing that all alfalfa wants is to be let alone, he has become the greatest alfalfa farmer in the world. This fact, however, is not set down in his modest little biography. Nor is the hardly less important fact that he presided over the convention of Okla., a document which attracted attention and aroused comment among the statesmen of Europe, and has since disappointed them by working out much better than they had expected. A man who lets three crops of alfalfa grow on his land every year, without a failure, could not fail in watching a constitution grow up as it pleased under his eye. His biography is too modest. This is a supplement.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Oklahoma City boosters received a hearty welcome at Ada and the hour and a half spent at the cement plant and mingling with the citizens was much enjoyed by all parties. In fact, the best of feeling has always prevailed between Ada and Oklahoma City, and trades excursions of this kind always cement the relations of the two places. The Oklahoma City boys are all right in every particular and will always find themselves among friends when they come to Ada.

FEDERAL LIQUOR LAW STILL HOLDS

Muskogee, Ok., April 29.—Muskogee is no longer Indian country but—and the sadness is in the last word—Muskogee is still part of the Indian Territory and the joy and gladness which arose over the first reports received as to the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals in the Evans case have been both shattered and dispelled.

Copies of the syllabus and opinion of the circuit court of appeals were received here today but the purport of the decision became known on Saturday when word was received here that all the railroads and express companies of liquor notwithstanding the decision handed down at St. Louis.

The opinion which was received here today is clear and concise according to what District Attorney Gregg and J. S. Denton who represented Evans and as they represented opposite sides in the litigation and agree as to the effect of the court's opinion the laymen should be satisfied. It is agreed by the attorneys interested that the circuit court of appeals has only held that Sections 2139 and 2140 of the federal statutes which provides for searches and seizures in Indian country does not apply to Eastern Oklahoma, but it is also agreed that the court specifically holds that the 1895 law which makes it a felony to introduce liquor into Indian Territory is still in full force and effect. Judge Youmans was at first of the opinion that the circuit court had held that this was neither Indian country nor Indian territory but a reading of the opinion of Judge Sanborn changes the view of all the court officials. The court holds that the decision in both the Webb and Friedman cases are still the law of the country. Acting on the opinion of the circuit court of appeals the men now in the different jails waiting for trial introducing will be denied their release on their own recognizance and they will have to go to trial at the next term of court. The law of 1895 is directly attacked in the Bob Wright case which is pending before the United States supreme court and the decision of the court in this case will be the law. If the court should hold that the enabling act knocks out the law of 1895 then the doors will be opened to the individual, but if it should hold that it is still a violation of the law to ship liquor into eastern Oklahoma even for the personal use of the individual and when it is not in conflict of any state law there is certain to be a long dry spell. The opinion of the circuit court came as a sad blow today to the thirsty because they had hoped for so much.

PURCHASING A PIANO

By JENNIE CONNERY.

"My wife and I have been buying a piano," said the man in the smoking car. "If you never went shopping for a piano you'd better get me to tell you how it is done. Anyway, you can't keep me from telling you."

"First, you decide that you might just as well quit hoping ever to have enough money to buy a piano, and then you take the bull by the horns and say: 'Oh, well, we'll go in debt for it. That's the only way some folks will ever have anything, and we happen to be that kind of folks. So here goes. We're sure always to be in debt anyway, and one might as well be hanged for a sheep as a lamb.'"

"Then you ask a number of musicians what kind of a piano is best. If you asked only one that would be all right. But you ask several of them, and that way lies madness. Each tells you of one piano that is right. No other one is. Especially the one recommended by the musician you asked yesterday—that one is the last word in superlative worthlessness."

"So after you have asked all the musicians you know you are where you began, plus a slight buzzing beneath the hatband."

"Then you decide that you'd better pick out a dealer, so you start on the rounds."

"You are received with open arms at each place and each dealer shows you what is without doubt the best piano made. You believe it yourself, when he says it that way. Besides, he shows you an inferior piano that is just as good as the better one. Get that, carefully! The inferior one is just as good as the other, every bit made by the same people."

"But you'd be foolish to buy one of the cheaper ones. It is decidedly inferior, though it has the same workmanship and material and guaranty as the other. Don't waste your time trying to understand how this can be but it must be. They all tell you that. No piano shop is complete without some good pianos and some other poorer ones that are equal to the best, only they are not."

"You tell one dealer that you want a player piano. He gets out a selection the 'Gander's Retreat From the Barnyard,' or 'Moonlight on the Pump' or a descriptive piece called 'Cats on the Back Fence.' Just some little thing like that. It is in a box, and when it is unrolled you see something that looks like a piece of wrapping paper that had been shot at with a muzzle-loading army musket used for buckshot. Yes, and every shot had struck."

"The salesman places this embroidered pattern in the fag in front where the cuckoo doors open, and proceeds to wiggle his feet while he mysteriously manipulates some perfectly simple levers under his hand. Then, with writhings of agony, as if his whole soul were going into his job, he works the thing through. You are thrilled and you firmly believe that is the best piano made."

"The next day, or the same day if you stand the strain, you go to another dealer and he does the same thing. They all tell you the price is nine hundred and fifty dollars. But you are fortified with stories of how Smith got two hundred dollars off from the list price on his piano and Jones had one practically given to him to keep the other dealers from selling him one. In fact, if one believed all that one's friends have said one would be led to think that a piano costs so little to make that it is cheaper to hire some one to haul them away and burn them than to pay taxes on them in the storeroom."

"One thing you will learn in each place is that the best musician in the city—always a different person, by the way—has just bought a piano of that particular make and recommends it highly to everybody."

"I must not neglect to tell you that the salesman finds, just as you are starting to leave, a piano he had forgotten. Just before he rings the bell to send for the elevator that they use to haul passengers on he thinks—with a clap of his hand to his forehead—of a piano that has just come in. It has been used for about fifteen minutes somewhere, and for that reason he will knock seven hundred dollars off the price. Don't ever start a music store without a piano of that sort in stock. It would be a poor store."

"These are some of the things you find out when you go shopping for a piano. I do not go into the buying part, for that part is never quite clear to the purchaser. He remembers many things up almost to the moment of purchase, and then he goes into a trance and lets the man sell him almost anything to get the job off his hands."

Their Parting.

All too short had been their association. All too soon had come a parting of the ways. This being the case, Mary Jane and her mistress considered it an apt moment for the throwing off of a few remarks.

"I hope you will leave in a respectable manner," said the mistress tartly. "You came with your box in a low-down, plebeian wheelbarrow."

"And I'm going away in a motorcar," snapped the domestic. "My new missus is sending one."

"Then," cavilled the mistress of the past, "why doesn't it drive up in a respectable manner to the front gate?"

"Well," replied Mary Jane, "perhaps they don't want people to think they're on visiting terms here."

It Makes All the Difference In the World

That's what you say when you tell your friends about your shopping expeditions. It may be the principals of the store, the service it offers or the quality of the goods it sells that you are discussing. But the difference to you means your satisfaction or disappointment.

You will find when you deal with the merchants who advertise in the NEWS that the difference stands always for satisfaction. Each store values its reputation too much to risk disappointing you. Each wants your good will. So they direct every effort to serve you best and give you the best values.

GRANDSON OF MRS. MCCAIN BURNED TO DEATH

Sunday night the residence of L. M. Terry at Richardson, Texas, was destroyed by fire. An eight-year-old boy was burned to death and the entire family more or less badly burned. Mrs. Terry was burned to an extent that it was feared that her injuries might prove fatal, but since then she is reported to have rallied to some extent. Mrs. Terry is a daughter of Mrs. L. J. McCain of this place. She left for Richardson on the next train after hearing of the tragedy.

Notice.

There will be a call meeting of the Cemetery Association Wednesday afternoon at 3 p. m. at the Presbyterian church.

John W. Simpson, the agricultural agent for the Indians was over from Sulphur today. Like all others familiar with the situation, he says crop prospects are good everywhere in this section, except some patches of oats which were not put in well.

Spellers to Compete May 20.

Oklahoma City, Ok., April 29.—The state championship spelling contest will be conducted here on the morning of May 20, during the annual meeting of County Superintendents of Education. Nearly every county will be represented by its champion speller, selected at county meetings.

The association will be in session May 19 to 21. One of the features will be a daily address by Dr. L. G. Miller, member of the State Dental Association, on "Oral Hygiene."

W. A. Hill, representing A. D. Shrewsbury and company of Little Rock, Ark., says that the impression which has gone forth that he is no longer interested in the Dan Hays Addition is wholly erroneous; that the company will soon erect about one dozen modern cottages on their lots, and that he is in position to sell these places on the easy payment plan. Furthermore he is able to sell you a lot and build you a home to your liking in the same way.

MAY DAY PROGRAM

Wednesday Afternoon at 3 P. M.
For some time the pupils and teachers at the High School have been preparing a program for the First Day of May but owing to the fact that the Normal has a ball game with Edmond on this day they have decided to pull off the program on the last day of April, Wednesday afternoon of this week.

The program will begin promptly at 3:00 p. m. and there will be no charges to anyone. We hope to have a large percent of the patrons at the building at this time. After the May Day program there will be some Athletic events for the benefit of the crowd.

The program will be as follows:

1. Pageant.
2. Coronation.
3. Greeting.
4. May Pole Dance.
5. Japanese May Song.
6. Tambourine Drill.
7. Folk Dances.
8. "Coming Through the Rye."
9. "Snail Game."
10. Hoop Drill.
11. Folk Dances.
12. "Blacksmith's Song."
13. "The Bird's Nest."
14. See-Saw.
15. Flag Drill.
16. May Pole Dance.
17. America.

The Athletic Contests will consist of the following:

- 1. Potato and Sack Races—Primary Grade Pupils.
- 2. Tug of War and 100-yd. Dash—Intermediate Grades.
- 3. Flag Relay and Three-legged Race—Grammar Grades.
- 4. 100-yd. Dash by Upper Grade Girls.
- 5. The track team of the High School will do practice work for a while after the regular program.
- 6. The Patrons' Club will serve refreshments on the grounds.

FOR BETTER FARMING. Permanent Organization Formed as Result of Tulsa Conference.

Tulsa, Okla., April 29.—(Special)—A permanent organization for "better farms and better farming" in Oklahoma is the result of the Oklahoma State Development Conference held in Tulsa on April 24. The Oklahoma Farm Congress Association was organized with J. F. Darby of Muskogee as president and O. H. Leonard of Tulsa treasurer and Julius Letcher of Tulsa secretary. Two vice presidents were elected from each judicial district of the state as follows:

- District No. 1.—J. H. Jackson, Enid; O. E. Grecion, Stroud.
- District No. 2.—Frank Thralls, Adair; George Curtis, Oklahoma City.
- District No. 3.—William McArthur, Bixby; E. B. Shotwell, Okmulgee.
- District No. 4.—A. F. Snoddy, Stratford; J. T. Leard, Hugo.
- District No. 5.—C. C. Henry, Altus; F. J. Meek, Duncan.

The first work of the new organization will be to see that the counties of Oklahoma are well represented at the International Dry-Farming Congress in Tulsa in October, both through exhibits and delegates. F. J. Meek, secretary manager of the Oklahoma Retail Merchants' Association, and Charles B. Caldwell, secretary of the Oklahoma Development Commission, will visit every county in the state during May as exposition commissioners for the big congress. They will work with the county committees already appointed and will confer with local business men for new work where there is now none. Blaine, Tulsa and Muskogee counties have already guaranteed $500 each in special prizes to the winners at Tulsa in October, and it is expected that every county in the state will follow suit.

Resolutions.

Whereas, The Lord in his wisdom has seen fit to call from his labors our brother and co-worker, Dennis Rushing, and

Whereas, He was the father and founder of this convention, and, has rendered innumerable services to this country, the home, and the church, musically and socially, and

Whereas, By his death this organization has lost an earnest worker and supporter, we as individuals, a loyal brother and his family an affectionate and devoted husband and father, therefore be it resolved: That we emulate, our late brother, in promoting the interest of this convention and keeping it working harmoniously, and be it resolved: That we extend to the bereaved family our condolence; and be it resolved: That we extend to the memory of this our late brother, by singing the songs he loved so well, and be it further resolved: that a copy of these resolutions be spread up on the minutes of this meeting a copy sent to the family, and a copy furnished each of the county papers.

NORMAL NOTES

By MOIKE CASSIDY

Ada, Atoka, Lindsay, Maude, Madill, Center, Holdenville, Roff, Tishomingo, Ahloslo, Okemah, Weleetka and Calvin have entered contestants in the contests that are to be held at the Normal next Friday night and Saturday. These schools are all in practically the same class and the competition is expected to be very close and the points to be well scattered.

A force of men has been grading the Normal track for several days and it promises to be fast by next Saturday. It is a circular runway of 440 yards with a splendid straightway for the 100 yard dash and the 120 yard hurdle. The movable bleachers will be moved to a position just in front of the finish and from which a good view of the track may be obtained.

East Central will give away prizes valued at more than one hundred dollars and these may be seen in the window of Warren's jewelry store. The young ladies of the W. C. A. have been soliciting homes for our visitors but to date they have not secured enough.

Miss Turner and Miss Alice Payne took part of the students of the training department on a picnic yesterday evening. They all report a splendid time.

A. T. Watson, Poteau; Daisy Whipple, Ada; Bethel Scroggins, Vamoosa enrolled this morning for regular work through the summer term.

The students of the music department gave a very interesting program Friday evening in the normal auditorium. This was the first concert which the music department has had but

"Our Personal Guarantee to all Skin Sufferers"

--Ramsey Drug Co.

We have been in business in this town for some time, and we are looking to build up trade by always advising our patrons right.

So when we tell you that we have found the eczema remedy and that we stand back of it with the manufacturer's iron clad guarantee, backed by ourselves you can depend upon it that we give our advice not in order to sell a few bottles of medicine to skin sufferers, but because we know how it will help our business if we help our patrons.

We keep in stock and sell all the well known skin remedies. But we will say this: If you are suffering from any kind of skin trouble, eczema, psoriasis, rash or tetter, we want you to try a full size bottle of D. D. D. Prescription. And, if it does not do the work, this is our positive no-pay guarantee.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

We are beginning the last month of school resolved to make it the best month of the year.

On Wednesday afternoon, a May day program will be rendered on the High school grounds in which the entire school will take part, also a field meet in which all the grades will be represented. Every one is invited to attend.

Misses Mollie Russell and Allie Price visited the school Monday morning.

The Ada High school will be well represented in the District field meet which will be held on the normal grounds Saturday, May the third, and as our boys made a good record at the county meet at Roff, we are still depending on them.

Several patrons have offered homes to the delegates and visitors to the field meet, but a large number are expected and we need more homes. If you can take one or more visitors, notify Supt. Robison at once. Bed and breakfast are all that is requested.

The boys and girls are beginning to practice on their program to be given the last of school. The program will be printed later. The eighth grade graduating class will also give a program.

"PATENT" MEDICINES MADE FOR OVER A CENTURY

"Patent" medicines have been manufactured in the United States for more than a century, and prior to that time immigrants brought with them the family medicines in use at that time in the countries from which they came.

If these remedies were harmful, or merely useless, the demand would not have existed all these years. As a matter of fact the people want, and need, a simple system of medication, such as is provided by the package medicines, usually known as "patent" or "proprietary" medicines.

The package medicine system of medication is today more generally used than any other. There is scarcely a home in the land where it is not used, for every home has or ought to have, its medicine chest and a constant supply of the simple remedies that the so-called "patent" medicine system has evolved.

Only those things succeed which really deserve to, which fill a real need, which have a real usefulness. That one doctor is kept busy night and day, while another of equal age and length of residence has little, if anything to do, proves that superior ability and skill of the busy doctor. And so with package medicines. Those which established themselves and are in general use, are by reason of their establishment and use, proven to be of real merit, for no article, medicinal or otherwise, can ever become established and popular in an intelligent community unless it is of real and lasting merit.

The Lonesome Pine.

The Lonesome Pine was presented at the opera house Monday evening to a fair sized audience. It is a drama presented by a cast of three characters, but the play is none the less interesting on that account. It is really a good production and the company presenting it is made up of talented players.

T. C. U. DEFEATS OKLAHOMA A. & M.

Fort Worth Tex., April 29.—T. C. U. defeated the fast Oklahoma A. & M. team on the local campus yesterday by a score of 4 to 1. Bossler, working for the Christians, was invincible in pinches and gave up only five hits, while his team mates were garnering ten off Terry's delivery. Terry, however, pitched consistent ball throughout, coming out of some bad holes, while Bossler weakened in the sixth and gave four of the five hits made by the Farmers.

Remarkable Catarrh Cure

Gets Right into the Affected Parts and Stops Gathering in Eyes, Noes, Throat and Lungs.

By a long series of elaborate experiments at the Swift Laboratory it is definitely known that catarrh can be cured by the simple process of inoculating the blood with antidotal remedies that stop inflammatory conditions throughout the mucous linings of all the organs of the body. This is done with the famous Swift's Sure Specific, or as it is widely known, S. S. S. It is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation in less than an hour.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely catarrh often infests the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 per bottle. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, boils and all scrofulous conditions. For special advice on any blood disease write in confidence to The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. at your druggists.

WHEN THOMAS HELED SNOODGRASS KILL

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 29.—The battlefield at Chickamauga has many points of interest to those survivors of both armies who fought there. But Snodgrass hill, or Horseshoe summit, is to Chickamauga what the Little Round Top is to Gettysburg. It was there that the consuming flames of battle rose highest and enough blood was shed to make "Chickamauga a Mecca throughout all ages."

The late Charles A. Dana, assistant secretary of war in Lincoln's cabinet, who was with Rosecrans as war correspondent, sent the following message east after the battle of Chickamauga: "Chickamauga is as fatal a name in our (Federal) history as Bull Run."

This message was filed with the Telegraph company here after the repulse of Rosecrans at Chickamauga, probably after Rosecrans himself, with his staff, had reached Chattanooga in safety from that bloody field.

There lives in Chattanooga today a big hearted Irishman who came away from Chickamauga with Rosecrans, and if you will ask him who got the better of the fight at Chickamauga he will tell you without hesitation that the Rebels did. He will also describe the panic that seized the forces under Rosecrans, and the speed at which they fled to Chattanooga. If you suggest that Rosecrans returned to Chattanooga to decide upon a new line of action this Irishman will laugh at you.

But Snodgrass hill, as stated in the foregoing, was the bloody spot of this great battle, if in fact any spot was bloodier than others. The conflict at this point, as most readers are aware, took place Sunday evening. Gen. John B. Gordon describes the fight for the possession of this historic hill as follows:

"In the furious tempest there now came one of those strange, unexplained lulls, but the storm was only gathering fresh fury. In the comparative stillness which pervaded the field its mutterings could still be heard. Its lightnings were next to flash and its thunders to roll around Horseshoe summit. Along that rest and along Snodgrass house the remaining troops of Rosecrans' left wing planted themselves for stubborn resistance—one of the most stubborn in history. To meet the assault of Long street's wing, the brave Union general Brannan, standing upon this now historic crest, rallied the remnants of Croxton, Wood, Harker, Beatty, Stanley, Van Cleve and Buell; but up the long slopes the exulting Confederate ranks moved in majestic march. As they neared the summit a sheet of flame from Union rifles and heavy guns blazed into their faces. Before the blast the charging Confederates staggered, bent and broke; reforming at the foot of the slope, these dauntless men in gray moved again to still more determined assault upon the no less dauntless Union lines firmly planted on the crest. Through the blinding fires they rushed to a hand-to-hand conflict, breaking here, pushing forward there, in terrible struggle. Through clouds of smoke around the summit the banners and bayonets of
